the Auditorium in files of double rank. The long line of guests filed into the Auditorium and more than filled the spurious room. Never before in Wirhit as there been such magnificent splendo displayed us just night at the Audito-rium. The sall had been made ready for this event and no expense, labor or time had been spared to adorn and make ready the reception for the evening. Stretched across the main floor were nine tables and added to these were severa other tables arranged along the corridor of the soor room. Promiscious in the floor decorations were the handsome tubic adornments. Scattered all through the tables were large bunches of Beatty runes. Easter Blues, and trailing vines in the center of the first table was a siliar of solid white decorated with the twining vines and surmounted with the symbolic Eagle. The whole Auditorium burning. In the vault was a splendid canopy of varied colored hangers, and suspended above the Chair of the Muster f Ceremonies was a beautifully arranged. forst piece, which was made up of a solid white background of caroattons

> The average citizen , although he realizes the improvement that is going on in a casual way ,does not notice in de-tall the great amount of building and repairing that is going on in the roudence part of town. If a person will drive over the town today or Sonday and make a note of the new houses soing up and alterations and repairs that are tak-ing place, he will indeed be surprised. The sound of the hummer and the saw is singing a merry tune in all parts of the city. On one street in the south part of town there are no less than eleven cottages under way on a frontage of four blocks. Many new bouses are in the course of erection in the north ond, and the West Elde contributes as and Chishoim creek can be noticed at least ten bran new cottages of from five
